

An Evening with Patrick Chan

Share and Support the Olympic Dream 2010!

Meet Patrick Chan...

A young, talented and dynamic 18 year old Canadian with a dream of being on the podium at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics.

He was born in Ottawa and now resides in Toronto with his parents. He is a grade 12 student, fluent in English, French and Cantonese. Through hard work and dedication he is the current reigning two-time Canadian Senior Men's Figure Skating Champion (the youngest Canadian Champion in history at age 17) and the Silver Medalist at the 2009 ISU World Championships. Patrick is a tremendous competitor and used to breaking records! He was named in the 2009 Globe and Mail Power List (30 most influential people in sport in Canada). He has received numerous awards and honours. Find out more about this outstanding young man.
